

SUB.: Shortlisting of firms for the reconstruction of landslided hill slopes under UFRMP in the state of Uttarakhand.

Ref: EoI Document no. 6 / 18-19 dated 29.09.2018

The queries raised by some Firms regarding the EoI mentioned above and the response of PMU, UFRMP is presented below for the information of all the prospective Firms who may be interested in submitting their proposal in this regard:

S.No.	EoI Clause No.	Query (as has been written)	UFRMP's Response to the query
1	C: Eligibility Criteria for Empanelment	Bidder would like to know whether marine work can be considered for assessing eligibility of a bidder for control of surface water and erosion control apart from slope stabilization and slope protection works	Please refer to the "Scope of Work" which is self-explanatory.
2	B: Scope of work	Bidder would like to understand <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Exact scope of work under this project per location with respect to your table on page 5 of 18 2. Number of locations 3. Value of project per location 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Scope of work , inter alia, encompasses reconstruction of damaged hill slopes, which include construction of check dams, water channeling works, river bank protection works, gabion wall construction works, rock-nailing, rock-bolting and other similar hill-slope stabilization related works. 2. Three (3) model sites and 5 to 6 candidate sites (approximately). 3. The expected expenditure would be around INR 100 crore (1000 million), which will be spent in construction of 3 model sites and 5 to 6 candidate sites (approximately).
3	B: Scope of work	Bidder would like to understand the exact scope so that relevant experiences can be displayed against each item given in the table on page 15 of 18 of EoI document Is it necessary to show all the items or any item under each main heading like slope stabilization/ slope protection/control of surface water/erosion control shall be displayed	Scope of work has been given in the EoI Notice and is also mentioned above at response of UFRMP at S. No. 2. See "Evaluation of EoI: Scoring criteria" at page 18 of 18. The EoI proposal may be prepared in the light of it.

		in experience
4	Minimum Annual Financial Turnover	Kindly amend the firm should have achieved a minimum annual financial turnover of value at least 40 crores, during the last three years for all type of construction works, as mentioned in the scope of work.	Amendment in financial eligibility at this stage is not acceptable.